

Freeman Gold Corp. Appoints Will Randall as President and CEO

Vancouver, British Columbia--(Newsfile Corp. - May 27, 2020) - Freeman Gold Corp. (CSE: FMAN) (FSE: 3WU) (formerly Lodge Resources Inc.) ("Freeman" or the "Company") is pleased to announce the appointment of Will Randall as President and Chief Executive Officer and Director, effective May 27, 2020. Mr. Randall is replacing the Company's current President and CEO, Howard Milne, who will resign this position and his Board seat effective today. Mr. Milne will continue as a consultant with the Company for a period of time. The Company would like to extend its appreciation to Mr. Milne for his valued contributions during his tenure.

Mr. Randall is a professional geologist with over 20 years of experience in the mining and mineral exploration industry. He was one of the early movers in the lithium brine industry, where he acquired, discovered and developed the Sal de los Angeles lithium brine project in Argentina. During his time running Sal de los Angeles, approximately $70M was raised for the development of the project which he led through resource development, feasibility, mine permitting and initial construction before being sold in an all-cash deal for $265M. He has been involved in raising over $200M and the successful development of several mining projects, including joint ventures with majors and national governments. Mr. Randall was raised in Argentina, before moving to Canada where he completed a BSc (Geology) and MSc. (Economic Geology) at the University of Toronto.

Freeman, under its incentive option plan, has granted 2,690,000 options to Directors and Consultants to the Company at an exercise price of $0.60, for a period of five years.

About the Company:

The Company is a mineral exploration company focused on the acquisition, exploration and development of mineral properties in Canada and the USA.

On Behalf of the Company
Kelvin Lee, Vice President of Freeman
